

E Safety Checklist for Parents and Carers

By following this simple checklist, you can start to protect your children and decrease the risks they face online.

Checklist	Why	Y/N
I have asked my child to show	By doing so, your child is including you in their me sites they use.	online life and social activity. Show an interest and take note of the names of their favourite sites. You can then re-visit these when you are alone. Take your time and explore the space, find out how to set the safety features and learn how to report any issues directly to the site.
I have set appropriate parental	Filters on computers and mobiles can prevent your controls on my child's	child from viewing inappropriate and possibly computer, mobile and games	illegal content. You can activate and change levels console.	depending on your child's age and abilities. You can also set time restrictions for using the internet or games. They can be free and easy to install. Call your service provider who will be happy to assist or visit CEOP's parent's site for further information. Explain to your child why you are setting parental controls when you talk to them about internet use.
My child has agreed to tell me	Sometimes children get into situations online if they are worried about	where they don't feel comfortable or see something online.	something they don't want to see. By opening up the communications channel and talking to your child about the internet, their favourite sites and the risks they may encounter, they are more likely to turn to you if they are concerned about something.
	By visiting the school's website and Think U Know you will find access to age Llus avverile and the met leader if I/ve	appropriate.
I know where to get help if I'm	The CEOP Safety Centre provides access to a range concerned about my child.	of services. If you are concerned that an adult has made inappropriate contact with your child can report this directly to CEOP. You can also find help if you think your child is being bullied, or if you've come across something on the internet which you may think might be illegal.	