

Justice

Head

EYFS: If it is your birthday and you share your sweets, you should share them with everyone, not just some people.

EYFS: we can share toys at school, that is fair.

Year 1: You need to treat people fairly to be kind to them.

Year 1: The Jewish people had to be slaves and that wasn't fair.

Year 1: If people aren't treated the same it's not being fair. Some people don't have any money so we should get rich people to help charities.

Year 2: Some of them have made me sad because one of them was about stereotypes and it's not good having stereotypes.

Year 2: Justice can be about kindness.

Year 4: I think it is not about us but about other people.

Year 4: Makes me think about other people who don't have the same as us.

Year 4: Not everything in life is fair.

Year 4: Makes you think about being fair.

Year 6: I think Justice is important because we need to know how other people around the world are feeling and treated.

Year 6: Justice is something everyone should have because it helps to live life fairly. You shouldn't be treated differently for your appearance or anything else.

Year 6: There is not justice everywhere in the world and we should try and make that happen.

Year 6: I think we should treat everyone how we wish to be treated.

Heart

EYFS: If something isn't fair then you might feel really sad.

EYFS: Sharing is caring

EYFS: When things are fair we feel happy and the other person feels happy too.

Year 1: It makes me feel kind when people are kind to me. I like to make things alright.

Year 1: It makes me feel sad and happy. If someone doesn't have a home it is sad but I feel happy that they are helping others.

Year 2: I feel happy because in the olden days people's choices and things were different for boys and girls but now people can choose.

Year 2: I feel like it is fair because if some people didn't have the same I would feel sad.

Year 2: I feel that it is unfair for some people, some people have lots of toys and a good life and some people don't have as much or nice things

Year 2: Justice makes me happy because it's about lending a hand and making things fair.

Year 4: I feel that things need to be fair.

Year 4: I feel that life is not easy.

Year 4: It makes me feel good because good people have got justice.

Year 4: It makes me feel like helping.

Year 6: It makes me feel happy that everyone has the right to justice.

Year 6: I feel disappointed in some people's behaviour and attitude towards others that they don't treat everyone fairly or remove the rights of others.

Feet

EYFS: we can share our toys

EYFS: we can let people go first if we always go first and then we can go second.

EYFS: we could food to people who need it more.

EYFS- when people are poorly and they don't have any money we could give them money so they can get medicine and start to feel better.

Year 1: I'm going to give money to help people who don't have homes.

Year 1: I am going to give the people I see in town who don't have a home some food.

Year 2: I would help someone if they're really hot and bothered and frustrated and it's nice to help people.

Year 2: I would help someone and ask them to play with me if they get left out.

Year 2: If someone fell over I would help them and if people were being mean i would stick up for the person who wasn't doing anything.

Year 2: If I saw someone sitting on the wall outside I would ask them what was wrong.

Year 4: Try and be more fair.

Year 4: Treat people how you want to be treated so it is fair.

Year 4: I would ask people what they want to do in life and help them achieve.

Year 4: Tell someone your thoughts and feelings so justice happens.

Year 6: I will make sure that I think of others more often before myself. Rather than it is unfair on 'me'.

Year 6: I will treat everyone the way I want to be treated and ask for forgiveness if I do something unjust.

Year 6: I will act differently. It needs to be actions and not just words.
